

Introducing Michelle Hall, an exceptional AKC Bernese Mountain Dog breeder residing at the foot of the awe-inspiring Beartooth Mountains. Michelle's journey in dog breeding began following in her father's footsteps as an AKC breeder/trainer of German Shepherds. Her love for dogs blossomed, and she trained her first show dog in 1980, entering him in her debut AKC exhibition on Easter 1982.

In 2013 Michelle's oldest daughter, Allie, introduced Michelle to her first Berner. It was true love at first sight. Since then, her commitment to producing the finest Bernese Mountain Dogs has remained steadfast. Each breeding decision is thoughtfully made to preserve the breed's exceptional traits.

Michelle is a loving mother of five adult children, a testament to her nurturing spirit. Her role as a mother nurtured in her a natural ability to care for and connect with living beings. This innate quality shines through in her interactions with both her cherished Bernese Mountain Dogs and the people she encounters.

Michelle Hall has been honored by Lux Life Magazine as the "2023 Leading Breeder of Bernese Mountain Dogs," a recognition that highlights her unwavering commitment to breeding exceptional dogs. With meticulous attention to detail and a deep love for the breed, Michelle has set herself apart as an industry leader. Lux Life Magazine acknowledges her expertise, ethical practices, and dedication to producing Bernese Mountain Dogs of outstanding quality. This prestigious title solidifies Michelle's status as a trusted source for those seeking loyal companions, show dogs, or beloved family pets. Her legacy as a top breeder shines brightly, and her commitment to the breed's excellence remains steadfast.

Michelle's genuine love for people extends beyond her family. Known for her warm heart and dedication to helping others, she guides new dog owners through the joys and challenges of pet ownership and offers assistance within her community. Living amidst the serene beauty of the Beartooth Mountains provides an ideal environment for her dogs to thrive. Within these stunning surroundings, Michelle tends to each dog with care and attention.

With Michelle Hall as your breeder, expect nothing short of extraordinary. Her knowledge and compassion for dogs and people distinguish her as a true advocate for the Bernese Mountain Dog breed. Whether you seek a loyal companion, a show dog, or a beloved family pet, Michelle's expertise and dedication will lead you to the perfect match. Welcome to Michelle Hall's world, where the beauty of the Beartooth Mountains merges with the magnificence of AKC Bernese Mountain Dogs.
